

2008-2009 SES Provider List - New Britain School District

2 Locations – Southington and West Hartford

The Ace It! And Sylvan Learning Center Program has been designed to build student skill mastery of the core skills required for success in reading and/or math at each grade level, K-12. They employ a diagnostic approach to identifying needs and a systematic, motivational approach to ensuring individual student success. Website: www.educate.com Contact: Sarah Leonard for West Hartford Office – 231-2429; Jennifer Barth for Southington Office – 620-1590 Places of Service: Sylvan Center or Schools (Elementary/Middle Schools only -Thursdays)

Comprehensive Enrichment's tutoring program is designed to increase the academic performance of students in K-12, including bilingual, second language, and special education students. They provide direct instruction in reading, writing and math to small groups, in one or two hour sessions up to 3 times a week. A dedicated training team of professional educators who specialize in building self-esteem while teaching basic strategies and skills is at the heart of their program. Website: www.achieveall.org Contact: Kelly Padilla – 518-8180. Places of Service: Library, Home or Schools (Elementary/Middle Schools only – Thursdays)

Futures, Inc. is a supplemental educational program designed to implement a student's educational or transitional program specifically suited to the individual child. Students of various ages and ranges of ability can receive academic instruction in the least restrictive and most inclusive manner possible. Futures is an CSDE approved special education school. Website: www.futures-ct.org, Contact: Pamela Don Aroma – 860-347-5099 x 226 Places of Service: Library or Schools (Elementary/Middle Schools only - Thursdays)

Regular Ed/Reading Only/Grades K-6

Open Doors Learning Center uses the Adventure Island Reading Intervention Program to provide intensive support for at-risk readers in K-6. Daily 45-minute reading lessons meet the needs of struggling readers and develop skills that students need to become strategic readers. The Adventure Island Program includes all key components required by No Child Left Behind for a high-quality reading program. Website: None Contact: Candy Phillips, 860-454-7962 Places of Service: Schools (Elementary/Middle Schools only – Thursdays) and Local Public Places

Regular Ed /Reading Only/Grades K-6

High School Only

Options provides one on one and small group tutoring of high school students in the convenience of their homes. If the parent/guardian prefers the student be tutored elsewhere, arrangements will be made to use a public facility. Times are arranged according to the needs of parents and students. Website: None Contact: Scott Wells – 860-523-5318 Places of Service: Students' Homes, Public Meeting Places

Regular Ed Only

The Princeton Review delivers SES programs that may raise student achievement levels in math, reading, and writing. In small group settings, teachers engage students with an instructional program that targets specific needs. Their curriculum is aligned with Connecticut's most current academic standards and organized in a way that makes learning fun and improving easy. Website: www.review.com. Contact: Bethany Berard - 401-465-7668 Places of Service: YMCA, Boys' & Girls' Clubs and Schools (Elementary/Middle Schools only -Thursdays)

Smarties Tutoring Services' program utilizes a state of the art reading intervention system, developed around the five components of reading – phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, comprehension, and fluency. This curriculum has proven successful at improving the reading skills of all students, including those with special needs and students whose home language is not English. All instructors are professional, certified teachers who are enthusiastic about helping children succeed. Website: www.smartiestutoring.com Contact: Isaak Aronson, 203-772-4331 Places of Service: Community Centers or Schools (Elementary/Middle Schools only - Thursdays)

